

ITALY 2019

CRJU 408/608: Serial Killers and Psychopaths: The Psychology of the Criminal Mind (3-Units)

CRJU 490/690: (In)Famous Forensic Science Investigations: The Amanda Knox and Monster of Florence Case Studies (3-Units)

- ❖ These 3-week study abroad courses will be held together Summer 2019 (tentative dates: June 2-22, 2019) in Florence and Rome, Italy.
- ❖ These courses are open to all majors (graduate/undergraduate) and have no prerequisites. These courses are perfect for forensic science, criminal justice, psychology, sociology, and communication majors, etc.
- ❖ Learn about the following topics:

CRJU 408/608

- ❖ Monster of Florence case and Italian serial killers
- ❖ Psychological explanations of criminal and violent behavior
- ❖ Enter the mind of the psychopath!

CRJU 490/690

- ❖ The Amanda Knox and Monster of Florence cases
- ❖ Crime scene investigation/reconstruction and forensic evidence
- ❖ Scandals: Forensic science gone wild!

- ❖ Visit the following locations:

- ❖ Live like locals in the ancient cities of Florence and Rome
- ❖ Perugia with a guided City tour and visit to Amanda Knox crime scene for crime scene reconstruction exercise
- ❖ Perugia Chocolate Factory for chocolate making workshop
- ❖ Visit two Monster of Florence crime scene locations and location where suspects met
- ❖ Stay in an ancient farm house in Assisi
- ❖ Meet with Italian experts to learn details about our case studies, law enforcement and criminal investigations, and psychological profiling from an Italian perspective including: lawyers for both of our case studies, crime scene investigator for Knox case, forensic psychologist, etc.
- ❖ Meet Italian locals and enjoy the delicious pizza, pasta, gelato, pastries and culture!

Students have the option of enrolling in both courses for a total of 6 units or enrolling in one of the courses for 3 units

- ❖ Receive credit for 400/600 level elective requirement for CJ major and/or...
- ❖ Elective requirement for FS minor or general elective for other majors and/or...
- ❖ Complete Senior Integrative Experience/CJ Internship for CJ major (registration in both courses will satisfy the CJ internship requirement)

For more information contact course Professors Elana Quinones and Robert Schug

elana.quinones@csulb.edu
robert.schug@csulb.edu

ITALY 2019

APPROXIMATE COURSE COSTS

Knife collected in Amanda Knox Case

Monster of Florence crime scene photo

REGISTER for CRJU 490/690 and/or CRJU 408/608 in person or by phone (562) 985-5561 at the College of Continuing and Professional Education (CCPE) or online at <http://www.ccpe.csulb.edu/international/students.aspx?pid=19>

- ❖ Cost for the Italian portion of the course
(This is a flat fee for one or both courses):
 - ❖ Approximately $3,400 (depending on total number of students) which includes:
 - ❖ 3 weeks of accommodations (shared apartments in Florence, hotel in Rome, and farm house in Assisi)
 - ❖ Chocolate making workshop
 - ❖ Local family owned organic vineyard tour
 - ❖ Guided tours and visits in Florence, Perugia, and Rome
 - ❖ Transportation to and from airport in Italy
 - ❖ Public transportation in Rome
 - ❖ Some meals (~4 breakfasts, 2 lunches, 4 dinners)
- ❖ Additional student costs include the following:
 - ❖ CSULB registration cost:
 - ❖ $945 – for 3 units
 - ❖ $1890 – for 6 units
 - ❖ Required medical insurance for $85
 - ❖ Roundtrip airfare to Italy for approximately $1000
 - ❖ Students are responsible passport fees and personal expenses while traveling in Italy
 - ❖ CCPE can provide information regarding available

SCHOLARSHIPS

- ❖ Limited space available!
- ❖ Registration and Payment DEADLINES:
 - ❖ Registration Deadline: January 25, 2019
 - ❖ $500 non-refundable deposit due January 31, 2019 to hold your space.
 - ❖ Remaining balance due March 25, 2019
 - ❖ Faculty permission required for final enrollment in courses.
- ❖ CRJU 408/608 taught by Dr. Robert Schug – a Forensic Psychologist who has interviewed serial killers!
- ❖ CRJU 490/690 taught by Professor Quinones who has over 15 years of experience analyzing forensic evidence, working CSI and teaching law enforcement crime scene reconstruction.

