

ITALY 2018

CRJU 490/690: (In)Famous Forensic Science Investigations: The Amanda Knox and Monster of Florence Case Studies (3-Units)

- ❖ This 3-week study abroad course will be held Summer 2018 (tentative dates: June 3-23, 2018) in Florence, Rome and Perugia Italy.
- ❖ The course is open to all majors (graduate/undergraduate) and has no prerequisites. This course is perfect for forensic science, criminal justice, sociology, anthropology, psychology, science, communication majors, or anyone with a curiosity and passion for forensics!
- ❖ Learn about the following topics in detail:
 - ❖ The Amanda Knox case
 - ❖ The Monster of Florence unsolved serial killer case
 - ❖ Crime scene investigation/reconstruction
 - ❖ Forensic evidence examination
 - ❖ Criminal investigations
 - ❖ International perspectives in criminal justice
- ❖ Visit the following locations:
 - ❖ Live like locals in the ancient cities of Florence and Rome
 - ❖ Perugia with a guided City tour and visit to Amanda Knox crime scene location for crime scene reconstruction exercise
 - ❖ Stay in an ancient farm house in Assisi
 - ❖ Visit a Monster of Florence crime scene location for crime scene reconstruction exercise and location where suspects met
 - ❖ Learn how to make famous and delicious Italian chocolates
- ❖ Meet with Italian experts to learn details about our case studies and law enforcement and criminal investigations from an Italian perspective including: medical examiner/death investigator, lawyers for both of our case studies, and crime scene investigator for Knox case.
- ❖ Meet Italian locals and enjoy the delicious pizza, pasta, gelato, pastries and culture!

- ❖ Receive credit for 400/600 level elective requirement for CJ major or...
- ❖ Elective requirement for FS minor or general elective for other majors or...
- ❖ Senior Integrative Experience/CJ Internship for CJ major

For more information contact

Professor Elana Quinones

elana.quinones@csulb.edu

Knife collected in Amanda Knox Case

Monster of Florence crime scene photo

REGISTER for CRJU 490/690 in person or by phone (562) 985-5561 at the College of Continuing and Professional Education (CCPE) or online at <http://www.ccpe.csulb.edu/international/students.aspx?pid=19>

ITALY 2018

APPROXIMATE COURSE COSTS

- ❖ Cost for the Italian portion of the course:
 - ❖ Approximately $3,000 (depending on total number of students) which includes:
 - ❖ 3 weeks of accommodations (shared apartments in Florence, hotel in Rome, and farm house in Assisi)
 - ❖ Chocolate making workshop
 - ❖ Local family owned organic vineyard tour
 - ❖ Guided tours and visits in Florence, Perugia, and Rome
 - ❖ Transportation to and from airport in Italy
 - ❖ Public transportation in Rome
 - ❖ Some meals (4 breakfasts, 1 lunch, 3 dinners)
- ❖ Additional student costs include the following:
 - ❖ CSULB registration cost:
 - ❖ $921 – for 3 units
 - ❖ Required medical insurance for $85
 - ❖ Roundtrip airfare to Italy for approximately $1200
 - ❖ Students are responsible passport fees and personal expenses while traveling in Italy
 - ❖ CCPE can provide information regarding available
- ❖ Limited space available!
 - ❖ Registration DEADLINE: January 31, 2018
 - ❖ $500 non-refundable deposit due January 31, 2018 to hold your space.
 - ❖ Remaining balance due March 16, 2018.
 - ❖ Faculty permission required for final enrollment in courses.
 - ❖ CRJU 490/690 is taught by Professor Quinones who has over 15 years of experience analyzing forensic evidence for LBPD, working CSI and teaching law enforcement crime scene reconstruction.

SCHOLARSHIPS