

Partner this summer with Project Harmony, Jerusalem
Art 300, Art 415 (Alternate credits available)

Launched in 2010, Project Harmony is a four-week English-language summer camp aiming to create a safe social space for Arab and Jewish children to relate in the most basic way – not as citizens of a political state or members of a religion, but as peers.

Space is limited to register interest or for more information contact:

Jeanette Johns
jeanette.johns@csulb.edu

Dates: June 24 – July 26, 2018

Approximate costs: Housing $1300 (includes breakfast and lunch)

Airfare $1200

Excursions, Field trips, $ 400

personal spending $ 500