SUMMER 2014 SHORT-TERM

STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIPS

One-half Summer Session tuition fee waiver ($448.50)

Eligible students must enroll in a CSULB SUMMER 2014 Faculty-Led, Short-Term Study Abroad Course

68 scholarships will be awarded by the Center for International Education to CSULB students who participate in a CSULB Summer 2014 short-term, faculty-led study abroad program. Applicants must possess a minimum 2.5 CSULB cumulative GPA.

In addition to the GPA requirement, applicants must submit a 500-word essay addressing the following:

- 1. Financial need: please describe why you need this scholarship to help fund your Summer Session 2014 short-term study abroad program (supporting financial documentation may be required);
- 2. Global engagement: what does this phrase mean to you in terms of studying abroad? What impact do you believe studying abroad will have upon your academic goals, career goals, and as a global citizen?

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 4:00 PM, Friday, February 14, 2014

Interested CSULB students must fill out an application form with required essay and submit it by the stated deadline. Applications will not be accepted if they are incomplete or submitted after the deadline. 562/985-8429 Email: studyabroad@csulb.edu

CSULB Summer Session Abroad Faculty-Led Courses

(All courses are taught by CSULB faculty. Faculty Permission required. For more information and application forms, contact the individual CSULB faculty member or see our website.